Thomas Phillips, et al., vs. N. B. Thompson, et al., from Wayne. Judgment reversed and judgment here for defendants.

L. W. Keener vs. Jonas W. Derr, from Lincoln. Judgment affirmed.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Paul B. Means, member of the House from Cabarrus, was in the city yesterday. He speaks most encouragingly of the Convention question in that section of the State.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Dr. J. T. Leach of Johnston county, and were pleased to learn from him and other sources that Johnston is all right on the question of Convention, and will elect beyond any question Messrs. Hinnant and Sanders.

Major A. M. Lewis left for the mountains yesterday evening, with a view of overtaking Tom Argo. The Major is a good speaker and we would like to see him and Argo hitch.

AN OPINION OF THE SUPREME COURT INVOLVING A NICE POINT.—Judge Pearson, of the Supreme Court, on Monday rendered an opinion which is interesting under certain circumstances. In this case the parties having made a contract of marriage, and on the day previous to marriage the woman executed a deed of gift of her real estaste to the value of $3,000 to her step-mother, without the knowledge of the man. After the marriage the husband sues for the recovery of the land back to the wife upon the ground of fraud. The court held that the deed was fradulent, intended to deceive the man, and the step-mother is ordered to convey back the land to the wife. The young men of the present age will be governed by this decision.

THE SPEAKING AT FORESTVILLE YESTERDAY.—A large crowd assembled at Forestville yesterday to hear the different candidates discuss the Convention question. Messrs. Gales and Battle made a powerful argument in behalf of the Convention, and Messrs. Jones and Holland made plain but exceedingly practical addresses, their argument being of that character which goes straight to the minds of the people of the country. "Muffin" Dick is said to have even surpassed his former efforts in demagogism and in his abuse of that race with which nature destined him to associate. Mr. Nowell did not put in an appearance—he did not leave Raleigh, the campaign being "too warm" for him. Hodge could not come to time—he was drunk and down, and could not do his usual amount of cussing. Davis did put in an appearance and informed his audience that he wanted to go to the Convention.

The canvass is growing exceedingly warm, and each day is adding interest to it.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE SCOTT PARTIN MURDER.—At a mass meeting of the citizens of Wake, Johnston and the adjoining counties, held on the 12th inst., in Panther Branch Township, in reference to the horrid murder of Mrs. Scott Partin and her infant ten months old, J. A. Adams, Esq., was called to the chair, and the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the meeting, viz: J. T. Leach, Jr., Dr. J. T. Leach, H. H. Johnson, J. A. Adams and F. Johnson. After a short absence, the committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It is the duty of all good citizens to interpose their influence, at all times, and under all circumstances, in the protection of the helpless and innocent, and the punishment of the vicious and guilty, and

WHEREAS, The cruel and atrocious murder and mutilation of the bodies of Mrs. Partin and her infant, ten months old, by her husband and other parties, has no parallel in the past history of the world, either savage or civilized, Therefore

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Johnston, Wake and Harnett counties present, resolve ourselves into a committee of vigilance, for the purpose of bringing to speedy justice the perpetrators of the horrid murder of Mrs. Partin and her infant.

Resolved, Furthermore, That we appeal to all law-loving and law-abiding citizens in, and out of the State, to co-operate with us in bringing to justice the human monsters, who committed, or were accessory to the crime referred to above.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the Hons. A. S. Merrimon and Thos. Fuller, for their kind offer of their services in ferreting out the base culprits of this foul murder of a woman, and her helpless babe.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Raleigh NEWS and Sentinel, with the request that they be published, and that the press generally, be requested to copy.

J. A. ADAMS, Chairman.

A PROBABLE FATAL AFFRAY.

Mr. Samuel Merrall, a Citizen of Raleigh, Stabbed in the Breast in a Difficulty at Forestville, and in a Sinking Condition.

PARTICULARS OF THE SAD AFFAIR!

[SPECIAL TO DAILY NEWS.]

FORESTVILLE, N. C., July 27.

After the Convention candidates had finished speaking at this place this afternoon an unfortunate, and it is feared fatal affray occurred between Samuel Merrill, Esq., of Raleigh, and Richard Thompson, of this place. The parties became engaged in a dispute, resulting in angry words, when Mr. Thompson stabbed Mr. Merrill with a knife in the left breast near the heart, inflicting, the Doctors think, a fatal wound. Up to this hour, 8½ p. m., the wounded man is alive but is slowly sinking, and no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

After inflicting the cut, Thompson immediately threw his knife away and left the place. Efforts are being made for his arrest.

The citizens of our quiet little village are quite excited over the terrible affair, but are doing what they can for the wounded man's comfort. It is said the two men had been upon friendly terms hitherto.

DIER.

The news of this sad affair caused much excitement in our community last night, Mr. Merrill being well and favorably known in this community, and at 9 o'clock a special train left the R. & G. Depot to convey the wife of Mr. Merrill, his family physician, and several members of his Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which order he is a high official, for the purpose of bringing him to Raleigh if possible.

Mr. Thompson, the man who inflicted the fatal wound, is a moulder by trade, worked for some years at the Separk foundry in this city, and has recently been engaged at the foundry at Forestville. The origin of the difficulty, it is thought, was the fact that Thompson was in debt to Merrill for groceries, which debt the latter was endeavoring to collect. Thompson is said to be a man of a violent character.

In the name of the whole community, we earnestly express the wish that Mr. Merrill may recover, though from other information obtained last night it is not thought probable he can do so.

WHY DAVY VOTES FOR "DE SERVATIVES."—Two colored fellow-citizens sat on the shady side of the Market-House and discusseth polities, meantime devouring a water melon.

"Davy, who you gwine to vote fer?"

"Why fer de Servatives, ob cose."

Julus—"what dat fer nigger? You spose dats gwine to make you white man jus cause bein a publican candate makes a white man a cullud pusson, or cause it makes an old time gem'um's son a muffin?"

"No, Julus, I don't speek nuffin of dat sort, but hab'nt I dun bin voten fer de publicans eber since freedom was, and what is I made by it? and hab'nt de cullud pussons dun loss all de money dey posited in de freedom bank, and hab'nt Mr. Douglass, de smartes cullud gem'um dis side ob de grave—not ceptin Jim Harris—dun tole de cullud folks to let de white publicans alone, and make de white publicans let dem alone?"

"Yes, Davy, dats all so, but I dont zackly see how you gwine to better de cullud man's chance by voten fer de Servatives."

"Why, Julus, let me rose to splain dis subjec. You see when de publicans held de offices in Wake County, dey loud de Sheriff to pocket all de money, and when a cullud man was sot up in de jury, he got de pay in what dey call scrip, den no body would not gibe you nuffin fer de scrip, and so de way ob it was a cullud man loss his time and sot on de jury fer nothing. Now las year, de servatives, dey beat de publicans and put dey own men in de offices, and dey won't let dey Sheriff take de taxes, and de consumquences is dat dey got de money to pay de jury. Dats so Julus, fer I was on de jury las coat and sot moas de whole time and when I cum down out of de box, why dars Dave Lewis wid de greenbacks in his hands ready to pay de jury ebery cent, and dis is de reason I'm g'wine to vote de servative ticket."

ENCOURAGING ACCOUNTS.—We continue to hear the most encouraging accounts from every portion of Wake county. The Democratic candidates are making the most favorable impressions wherever they speak, and the people of the sections where they have not reached have organized for the combat on the 5th of August, and will be favorably heard from on that day. Let Raleigh Township but do her duty, and Wake will come up all right.

THE CALIFORNIA FRUIT CROP.—The San Francisco Alta of July 12, says:

"The grape crop promises to be good in the State generally, and is unusually large in some districts near San Francisco bay, and scanty in some others, especially about Los Angelos and San Gabriel. A frost which came in the latter part of April was very severe at Los Angelos, and in the early pruned vineyards, where the shoots were far advanced, the loss is complete, while at Anaheim, where the frost was lighter and the pruning had been done late, there will be a good yield. The bananas at San Gabriel were cut down, and it is admitting now that they cannot be grown with a profit on the southern coast, unless at places exceptionally free from frost, either near the ocean or on the hillsides. The orange trees were not injured, but it is thought the orange crop of next winter will be small."

The civilized Indians and halfbreeds of the Cherokee appear to be no less savage than the worst of the whites in Texas, Arkansas, and other Southwestern States. A most sanguinary fight occurred among these people on the 18th instant, growing out of political differences between the Ross and Downing parties on the question of the chieftainship. Three persons were instantly killed, one of whom received in his body the contents of seven double-barreled shot-guns loaded with buckshot, and another deadly fight followed on the next night. If the Indian Territory were a State, we presume the President would send General Sheridan out there to subdue these banditti, but as they have no "put" in Congress or national conventions, they will, doubtless be left to fight it out on their line, "if it takes all summer." The party having the most arms and ammunition will most probably win.

When we look around and see the large number of able-bodied men who spend their money and their time at the beer saloons, while their wives are stitching at home, or go out washing to earn money to keep themselves and their children from starving, we naturally wonder why more young men don't get married, and marvel more, that so many young ladies do.—Norristown Herald.

When Grant heard of the birth of his grandson he smoked two cigars and exclaimed: "When that boy grows up I shall retire, and not till then. When he becomes President he must take the name of Grant."

FROM OUR BEAUFORT CORRESPONDENT.

"Oh the Sea, the Beautiful Sea!"—How the Time is Spent at Beaufort—What Raleighites are There and Things in General.

BEAUFORT, N. C., July 26th, 1875.

I am punctual to a day, having received your letter to take the place of your "negligent correspondent" who I must say seems to be enjoying himself in the way Woodson would best like. You will hardly believe that my thoughts in pity stray up to the old NEWS office knowing no such breeze as we have is wafting there. I am going to take my happy and pleasant furlough as a NEWS correspondent has a right to do and not as one of the envied editors of that popular paper. Mr. James Fulford desires me to say in this that your "negligent correspondent" made a mistake in stating that he was going to send you a barrel of clams, should have been a barrel of soft crafts and a box of "sand fiddlers" for John G. Williams, Esq., which he says are a great luxury. In connection with gifts, Dr. Blacknall writes me, he has for me an imported "Sooner" dog. Please name him ninety (90) and let Woodson keep him until the season is over, then I'll claim him if he is a good dog.

Hotels and boarding houses are full and the boarders all have that sea side vice of playing "old muggins" with some "draw polker" at intervals. By the courtesy of our clever Hotel proprietors of the Ocean and Atlantic Houses, hops are enjoyed by the young people nearly every night. Our old friend J. Atwater, from Chatham, came here almost a confirmed invalid from "paralysis" and to show what sea breeze and enjoyment can do, is now the chief ball manager at the Ocean, and participates in the fantastic. He says Chatham is for the NEWS. "Truthful James" is here that virtue having been discovered by Dr. T. D. Martin. The only reason given is that he can laugh as loud as "honest Dave" our County Treasurer. Our Bar is well represented by Messrs. Moore, Merrimon and Ashe, and the Medical by Dr. F. J. Haywood, Jr., the first two of the most prominent in their profession in the State, the two others named with their qualifications destined, merchants we have A. B. Stronach and R. F. Jones, successful in all their enterprises, and looking all around, I do not see a mean man from the City of Oaks.

The season for blue fishing has opened soon, and trolling parties are constantly out. Sheep heads are scarce and even our friend Porter has no luck. By the way, he says the "Oak City" is at the service of the corps of NEWS editors.

Come down and enjoy sailing in the best boat on these waters.

I have not dared to mention the ladies until after the ball at the Atlantic House on the 28th, when I will be sure to give a full account of behavior, beauty and dress.

BEAUFORT.

For the Daily News.

A Line from "Neptune's Domain"—Things Aboard an Ocean steamer—Traveling Companions—Passing Long Branch, &c.

STEAMER "OLD DOMINION" }
AT SEA, July, 25th 1875. }

Dear News:—I drop you a line from this floating palace, now ploughing Neptune's unruffled domain at the rate of fifteen miles an hour. There is no wind, no swell, and therefore no sea-sickness, although there are many ladies on board. We have a very pleasant crowd of passengers and feel perfectly at home in the hands of the excellent officers of the steamer. A few sail in sight lazily flap their white wings as if impatient under their enforced halting, and

"All the aid a solemn stillness holds."

Indeed, I have seen much heavier weather on the "proud, foaming crest" of "Crabtree" and the "calm serene breast" of Penny's mill pond. The quiet is unbroken except by the heavy thud of the stroke of the engines and the occasional merry, ringing laughter of some "Bonnie lassie," or the more discordant but not the less frequent lachrymal demand of some dear little year old, or precocious urchin, that all things else be "laid on the table," in the shape of an issue of Bonbons from capacious baskets or repeated trips from lower to huricane decks. The absence of incident is rendering the trip thus far really monotonous. Don't know what may happen between here and New York.

There!—I have an item. The ship's crew have just been piped to quarters under a false alarm. This is a practice of this line every trip to perfect the men in these duties. They are never of course informed when these alarms are to be sounded, notwithstanding which each man just a moment ago leaped into his place by life boats, pumps and fire engines with an alacrity and military precision, truly astonishing to a land lubber like myself. This over, everything has again assumed a somnolent air.

Had the pleasure of traveling from Raleigh to Portsmouth with Governor W. A. Graham, his lady and his son A. W. Graham. Esq., en-route for Saratoga, where the Governor will meet his co-arbitrator's in the long disputed matter of the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland. Mr. A W Graham is the Secretary of the Commission. The Governor thinks that the labors of the arbitratons will close with this meeting. Devoted as I am to my mother State my heart swells with pride in seeing her represented abroad by the commanding presence and wise statesmanship of this her beloved and honored son. Besides his other accomplishments as an erudite scholar and courtly, urbane gentleman, he is really, (so to speak,) a living encyclopedia of historic lore. His able address in maintenance and proof of the authenticity of the "Mecklenburg Declaration" has already brought to shameful silence those few envious journals of other States who were wont to stamp that document a "gigantic fraud." Gov. Graham informed me, on enquiry, that Gov. Allen of Ohio, Ex-Senator Conrad of Louisiana, and himself are the only surviving members of the U. S. Senate of the 27th Congress. May they long survive as pointers to a distant retrospect of purity in politics and by their counsel and presence among us aid us in rearing on the "shattered and dismembered fragments" of civil liberty an honest government like that in which they were active and prominent participants

"LONG, LONG AGO."

I also met Senator Ransom on his way home. Attached by his personal magnetism, as usual, time slipped unheeded by or surrendered to the magic of his instructive and brilliant conversational powers. He has been indisposed of late, but will nevertheless canvass vigorously for our Convention candidates until the election. Two "Tar Heels" aboard besides myself, the well known Donald Macauly, cotton and commission merchant of Charlotte, and Mr. Ed. Womble, of Newberne. Years have elapsed since I met my friend Donald Mac. I detected him in the dark by his Scottish accent and our meeting was, you may be sure, quite the reverse of that of the clans of Roderick Dhu and Fitz James. To the energy of such men as Mr. Mac. is due to a great extent the growth and thirft of Charlotte, Raleigh, &c. If I could be heard from Solway to Lake Katrine, I would cry aloud that we have room in our hearts, in our fertile valleys, and in our mountain forests for thousands of just such Scots.

Was just beginning to think that I should make the trip to New York without meeting with one of these public benefactors, insurance agents or sewing machine agents, when yesterday suddenly loomed up before my vision, Mr. C. W. Harris, the Napoleon of insurance in Georgia, and Mr. Wormell, of Newberne, a successful machine man.

We are now passing Long Branch, the Fontainbleau of the Grant dynasty. Flag after flag on the hotels and other buildings are being lowered as a salute to our noble ship, while we in return, give three blasts to each from our double bass engine whistle. We shall reach New York in two hours when I will mail this letter and will from time to time keep you informed of events transpiring there.

"VIDENS."

Vagrants in Springfield are made to pay for a lodging and breakfast by work on public improvements from 7 o'clock until 11 in the morning. An overseer watches them closely, because they are always ready after having the sleep and food to get away without giving the required equivalent. Ten of them were recently cleaning brick in the burned blocks. A horse ran away, the overseer went to catch it, and when he came back not one of his gang was there.

DON'T MAKE WAR ON THE STOMACH.—If you are bilious, dyspeptic and constipated, don't make war on the stomach by successively swallowing blue pills, strong purgatives and powerful astringents. Such a procedure damages digestion and weakens the bowels, leaving stomach, liver and intestines, after the immediate effect, in a condition of greater disorder than before. That complete relief which remedies of the above description signally fail to afford is obtained by using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. And for the best of reasons. Biliousness is the result of inactivity of the liver, dyspepsia of weakness of the digestive organs, and constipation is produced by the above causes operating together. The Bitters, being a powerful stomachic, overcome indigestion by stimulating the secretion of gastric juice, relieve biliousness by promoting greater activity of the liver, and thus enable the bowels to act with renewed regularity.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

A good advertisement in a widely circulated newspaper is the best of all possible
A
salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps and is never weary; who goes after business early and late; who accosts the merchant in his store, the scholar in his study, the lawyer in his office, the lady in her home, the traveler in the car or boat;
D
V
a salesman who no purchaser can avoid, who can be in a thousand places at once and speak to thousands of people daily, saying to each one the best thing in the best manner. A good advertisement insures a business connection on the most permanent and independent basis, and is in a certain sense, a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prices. Experience has shown that the dealer, whose wares have obtained a public celebrity, is not only enabled to sell, but is forced to sell at reasonable rates, and to furnish a good article. A dealer can make no better investment than in the advertising columns of a widely circulated newspaper. Such is the opinion of a man who is known to be the largest advertiser in the United States.
E
T
I
S
I

LET each county vie with the other for the biggest Democratic majority.

REMEMBER that the work of the Convention must be submitted to the people for ratification. They must supervise and endorse or reject the work of their delegates.

IF our friends keep up to their work, there need be no apprehension. The Rads are making a brag game; and there is no denying that they are working hard, and spending money freely. Our friends must not loose their hold. But our prospects are bright and brightening, and we have not a single discouraging report to chronicle.

THE question now is empathically, shall the State be ruled by the Democrats, white, or by the radicals, black? For to this complection, the thing has come. White man, stand to your colors! The negro has long ago fixed the color line. If you want to gain him, you must go to him. He is not coming to you. A Democratic majority in the Convention and white rule. A radical majority in the Convention and Civil Rights and negro rule.

Under which King, Bezonian?

BEAR in mind what John Page says, "if we (the radicals) get the control of the Convention, we will give the white folks h—l, d—n them." "We will fix it so that there shall be no difference between white and black in any thing."

The Convention of 1868 legalized the marriage of Thornton, white, with a negro woman. The Convention of 1875, if radical, will legalize all such in advance, and heavily punish any minister or magisrrate who refuses to solemnize such unnatural alliances.

White men! Do you invite miscegenation?

REMEMBER that the election law requires "That when a voter is challenged at the polls upon demand of any citizen of the State it shall be the duty of the Inspectors of the Election to require said voter before being allowed to vote to prove by the oath of some other person known to the judges the fact of his residence for thirty days previous thereto in the county in which he proposes to vote."

Remember also that the election law says: "No elector shall be entitled to register or vote in any other precinct or township than the one in which he is an actual or bona fide resident on the day of election, and no certificates of registration shall be given."

WHEN a Radical canvasser is so bold as to avow his liking for the Civil Rights bill in the West among a people known to be hostile to every line of it, it is evident that he is acting under strong pressure. Judge Watts told the truth against his will. He let the cat out of the bag inopportunely when he admitted at Marion that he approved the bill. Having made a clean breast of it, further concealment was needless, and he added, he was glad Congress had passed the bill.

They are all glad of it. They have abundant use for it. Oh; how they will handle their Democratic white friends! How it will delight Dick Badger to trample upon his aristocratic associates and run up his new allies, Page & Co., in their places.

THE Convention is called to benefit North Carolinians. It is their duty to send their best men to represent them.

LOOK OUT FOR THE SPECIAL TAX BONDS.

R. C. BADGER, the attorney for the Bondholders, is a candidate for the Convention. Judge Rodman, who decided in favor of their validity, is a candidate for that Convention. Take care that they are not in the majority. Men of the West, look out!

ARISTOCRATS.

The redoubtable R. C. Badger has mounted a hobby which he believes will bring him through the race, the foremost rider. He has bestraddled the scrub "Demagogue," and fancies himself an Alexander on the steed Bucephalus. But his sorry beast shows by its exposed ribs how unsubstantial the Rosinante of Dick Badger is, and in making his assaults on aristscracy, he fails because he wants the sincerty of Don Quixote. Who is there who has any faith in human nature that believes that Dick Badger is honest in his assaults upon the class in which he was born and reared and with which he had formed all his associations, social and personal? Does any one believe that an educated man, one brought up to reverence those to whom the meanest in the land have paid homage, even though it were involuntary, can belie his own convictions and turn upon those venerated names the sluices of abuse and defamation? Can a man honestly defame a class of which his own father was a conspicuous ornament?

There is no baser art used by the demagogue than the attempt to array one class against the other.—And really there is no art more injurious to the class he aims to conciliate. Who is the Aristocrat in these United States? There is no claim of birth, of hereditary rank, of transmitted inheritance of wealth. Every man is the founder of his own fortune, the progenitor of his own rank, the author of his own fame. Ninety out of every hundred who attain distinction in this country do it by their own exertions. Ninety out of every hundred come from the class that Mr. Badger affects to court. At every bar, in every counting room, at every place at which wealth or distinction have been won, the man from the people in nine cases out of ten is the successful one. Dick Badger would fill the heart with hate, envy and jealousy of all well merited success, since to succeed, is to be ranked as the aristocrat. The ambition, the energy, the hope of the poor man must be repressed, because forsooth, if he gets ahead of his fellows in the race of life, he is denounced as an aristocrat.

Mr. Badger so far from being the friend of the people, becomes their deadliest enemy. He would keep the poor man where he is. He would stifle all pride, repress all ambition, extinguish all hope, because the improvement of his condition elevates the poor man into the aristocrat.

But Mr. Badger imposes upon no body. If his surroundings define a man's position and govern his instincts, then he is an aristocrat in the very sense he condemns. If he is so dead to his instincts as to trample with cold blooded brutality upon the graves of those the people all delighted to honor, he touches no pulse of popular sympathy. He stands ont in bold relief as a traitor to nature, and he gets no confidence from those whose prejudices he seeks to sway. "It is an ill bird that befouls its own nest." And the people will not be drawn to a man who proves himself false to duty, and to position assigned to him by education and association.

THE Convention of 1868 declared the marriage of A. G. Thornton, a white man with a negro woman, valid and binding. Do you want a Convention which which will go farther than this and make it compulsory on magistrates and ministers to solemnize all such unnatural and unholy alliances?

Vote for the Radical candidates, or keep away from the polls if you do. You will get what you want then.

REMEMBER all the amendments proposed by the State Constitution will be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection. If the alterations proposed to the Constitution are not acceptable, they will be rejected.

A PROMINENT gentleman of this city gives two very succinct reasons for voting for Convention. "We did not make this Constitution and (with emphasis) we do not understand the —— thing."

A day's declamation could not say more.

MAKE Wake county sure, the eyes of the whole State are upon it. Its ticket is a splendid one. Its candidates are doing splendid service. Let the Democrats stand up to them.

THE THIRD TERM.

Grant is lying quiet, and his friends have nothing to say openly as to his hopes or aspirations. Yet every now and then something leaks out to show that the President has not lost sight of the prize, and if he cannot reach it by ordinary approaches, he will grasp it by some startling leap upon popular sympathies or popular admiration. The National Republican has a leader on the subject of Cuban indepedence, and intimates very broadly that the time has come for the United States to recognize it. All this is very true, perhaps, because the sympathies of the people are with the oppressed of all nations. But the South had precious little of it from abroad, and the party of which the Republican is the mouth piece denounced such sentiments as crimes against nature, and it wears the appearance of burlesque to put President Grant forward as the champoin of liberty and the enemy of the oppressed while his foot is still upon the neck of his own people, and when, if he had been allowed to have his will, he would have trod out the life of the South.

He may get up a war with Spain, he no doubt will with Mexico, and he may be President for a third term. All of which would only go to show that he has had his eye upon that prize all the time, and that the government has already taken its step in the direction of hereditary empire.

PERFECT your county organizations. Let County Executive Committees see that every body has registered. And see that every Democrat goes to the polls.

THE question is not whether we shall have a Convention or not: it is, who shall represent us? Remember this.

General Sherman and Jefferson Davis.

General Bragg on the stand.—The Austin (Texas) Statesman of July 11th says:

"General Bragg was in the city several days during the past week. He referred, in the course of conversation, to the recent assertion of General Sherman that he had suspected Mr. Jefferson Davis of complicity with the assassins of Mr. Abraham Lincoln. General Bragg said that he had seen Mr. Davis tested in cases of this sort, and while two efforts were made by hired assassins in 1864 to destroy Mr. Davis' life he never manifested the least signs of resentful feeling. It was in June, 1864, that Mr. Davis, when riding along the defenses of Richmond, was fired at, the bullets passing very near his person. Once afterward he was shot at when in the outskirts of Richmond. But we propose to settle this question finally. Dahlgren's raid will not soon be forgotten. Colonel Dahlgren's address, as written and signed by him, was memorized and spoken or read to his followers. They were disguised as spies, and were captured as spies inside of the Confederate lines. They came, as stated, to murder Mr. Davis. When they were captured and this paper was found on the person of this man Dahlgren, Mr. Davis's cabinet and his military staff concurred in declaring that the prisoners should be executed in accordance with the laws of war. President Davis, after reading the paper and finding that he especially was designed to be assassinated by Dahlgren, peremptorily forbade other treatment than that accorded to prisoners of war. [General Bragg preserved photograph copies of Col. Dahlgren's order.] If Mr. Davis were capable of enormities which Gen. Sherman would ascribe to his intervention he would never have hesitated to punish with death the disguised followers of Dahlgren. And would it not be well for General Sherman to remember that Mr. Davis at all times intervened in behalf of the condemned? It was the complaint of many Confederate leaders that nobody could be executed who appealed to the President for pardon. He spared Harrison Self, the bridge burner of East Tennessee, and each Unionist who became a spy rather than soldier, and was captured within the Confederate lines."

AN UNFORTUNATE BIGAMIST.—Ellen Quinn, aged nineteen, pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy in the Court of Sessions, Brooklyn, on Wednesday, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. The sentence is the lowest the court could impose. The prisoner married Quinn when she was seventeen years old, but learning one day after the marriage that he had a wife living, left him. Thinking that she was not legally married, she subsequently united herself in matrimony to a young man named Nagle. Judge Moore, in view of these facts, promised to ask the Governor for a pardon for the prisoner.

A Milwaukee belle, attending a theatre recently, complained in one of the scenes that the light was too dim to see the acting properly. "Won't you try this glass?" asked her escort, handing her his lorgnettie. Hastily covering the suspicious looking object with her hankerchief, she placed it to her lips, took a long pull, and then handed it back in deep disgust, saying, "Why, there ain't a drop in it!"

She was fitted for a preacher in the church of truthful Beecher, where the text is spoke in kisses, and the sermon is of blisses, that the saintly, fervid teacher never, never, knew before; where true inwardness suspected, when finally detected, is paid a hundred thousand not to do so any more; only this and nothing more.—New York Sun.

Mrs. Lincoln's mental condition is unchanged, and the Superintendent of the Batavia, Ill., institution says he does not regard the prospect of her recovery as very encouraging. Her son Robert visits her weekly, and every possible provision is made for her comfort.

Capt. James W. Gilmer has resigned his command of the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, his business engagements compelling the resignation.

A DESPERATE SHOOTING AFFAIR IN ALABAMA.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser gives the following particulars of a desperate shooting affair at Perdido station, Baldwin county, in that State, on Monday last:

"Mr. Bryers, a justice of the peace, had a stock range in which the stock of his neighbors ran at will. For some cause he resolved to fence other stock off this range, and did fence them off—leaving it open to his only. A family by the name of Hadley and another by the name of Stewart, friends and relatives each of the other, became enraged at Bryers' conduct. On Monday last the Hadleys and Stewarts, six in number, rode up to Bryers' residence and called him out. They were armed with double barrelled shot-guns, but not dreaming that they meant to harm him, the old man and one of his boys went out to meet them. As these left their door the six men at the gate opened fire upon them, killing both. Another son of Bryers', who was in the house when the firing began, seized a shot-gun and rifle and ran into the yard. Meanwhile, however, the party at the gate had taken to cover and those of them whose weapons had not been discharged in the first onset, shot the third son, their shot taking effect in his side. But he held his ground bravely and with such effect that he succeeded in killing two of his assailants and wounding a third. The others fled."

A TURN OF THE TABLES.—The Galveston (Texas) News says no one who has been in the habit of visiting the different wharves in that harbor for any length of time can have helped noticing in the past the immense quantities of grain imported from the Western States by way of New Orleans. Thousands and tens of thousands of dollars were annually drawn from the inhabitants of Texas to pay for these articles. Times have at last changed in this respect. Texas not only now raises enough grain for her own consumption, but can spare some for her less fortunate neighbors; and instead of seeing the wharves of Galveston filled with huge quantities of grain, imported from abroad at immense cost, is now heard the shrill whistle of the locomotive as it draws loaded trains of grain to vessels for export.

WORK! WORK.—If ever there was a time when men should have their coats off, and their shoulders to the wheel it is now and right now. Men of Pitt, and of dear old North Carolina every where, remember this. Strive for the freedom and honor of your homes. To every man whose soul is not dead, right and justice should be dearer than life. Some of you may have very poor and humble homes, but no cloud of shame bars its entrance to respectable people. Resolve to preserve that good fame intact or die.—Greenville (N. C.) Register.

THE CORN CROP.—In all this section the corn crop promises an unprecedent yield, and throughout the South the corn crop the present year bids fair to be the best since the war, and as good as any within the recollection of the oldest planter. Cotton is also very promising in the eastern parts of North Carolina, through which we have recently travelled.—Norfolk Virginian.

The Enterprise says: Talk about your cleanly housekeepers! There is a lady in Wytheville who polishes her broom handle, rubs up the kitchen hatchet, and slaps limber jawed any man that chaws terbacker in the house.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Alamance is boasting of tomatoes weighing 20½ ounces.

Crops have never looked more promising than they do at present in Stokes county.

Hickory, Morganton, Old Fort, and Asheville are overrun with Summer visitors.

The Democrats of Jones county have nominated Mr. F. M. Simmons for the Convention.

Hon. A. M. Leach will address the people of Duplin county at Kenansville on Wednesday 28th July, and at Magnolia, Thursday, 29th July.

Col. A. M. Waddell has taken the field, and will speak at Fayetteville to day. With Waddell and Ransom in the Cape Fear section our friends in that locality must feel doubly armed.

A correspondent of the Cherokee Herald says: "Macon county will send to the convention W. N. Allman Esq., a gentleman of ability, experience and great purity of character. His candidacy gives universal satisfaction."

The Editor of the Greenville Register has become disconsolate. Hear him: "So many of our fair ones have left our little town on a pleasure excursion, that we cannot wonder over the frequent rains we are having.—Nature herself seems to be weeping in sympathy with the disconsolateness of certain gents about town who have hanged their harps upon the willows.

Says the Alamance Gleaner: "Throughout the county, where we were last week, there are the finest crops. Wheat was everywhere good, so were oats and if the seasons hold out there will be more corn made than for years. All this is highly encouraging and gratifying. Good crops and a good constitution economical in its provisions, and suited to the wants of our people, would be a combination of blessings in one year for which we should all acknowledge our thankfulness."

Says the Goldsboro Messenger: "From all quarters the news is "All's well." The deceptive policy of our opponents is thoroughly unmasked—the people have their eyes open. But do not rest upon your oars. Whilst you are asleep, the Radicals will have their bushwhackers at work, "seeking whom they can devour." White men, be not deceived. The issues involved are of too great importance. Be vigilant and vote for Dortch and Cox."

Vance said at Wadesboro: "The Radicals say that if we get a majority in the Convention, we will overthrow the Homestead law, but he that sayeth so, is a fool or a liar. For would we destroy the law that gives us our home, where our children have been born and reared—where they have have died and been carried forth to their last resting place. I say no, we will not, and he that sayeth so, is both a fool and a liar."

Says the Charlotte Democrat: "The new building for the Southern Life Insurance Company is being commenced on the corner of Tryon and Fourth Streets. It will be a large structure, judging from the foundation prepared for it. We believe it is understood that a part of the building will be occupied by the Commercial National Bank, the Post Office and a Court Room. The Company has such a reliable and gentlemanly Agent at this point, Gen. Thos. F. Drayton, that we are not surprised at the prosperity of the Institution in Charlotte."

Says the Greenville Register concerning the crop prospects in Pitt county: "A few days ago we were in the country as far as Farmville by the way of Marlboro. As far as can be judged by an outsider looking over the fence, Pitt county never had a fairer prospect for a large corn and cotton yield. A great many of the farmers have laid by their corn and have turned their attention to their cotton. We learn the wheat crop was very good this year, and we hope our farmers will plant more corn and wheat and buy less flour and pork; when this is done our county will be prosperous."

Both Capt. Lawrence, of the steamship Isaac Bell, and Capt. Brown, of the steamtub Lumberman, have had their license revoked by the Board of Local Inspectors for allowing the late collision of these two vessels in Hampton Roads, by which a number of lives were lost, it being held that both officers violated the rules and regulations governing in such cases.

The Third Georgia Regiment, one of the first organizations in the South to rally to the defence of Virginia in the late war, and which was stationed at Norfolk during 1861, purposes holding a re-union in Portsmouth in August, arriving there on the third of that month. The military of Portsmouth and Norfolk will give their old comrades in arms a good time on the occasion of this reunion.

"Amen! amen!" shouted a Cedar Rapids parson, at the elegant remarks of a stranger at the campmeeting. Suddenly the parson turned his eyes on the man and jumped up screamed, "Catch him, brothers, catch him! He's the three card monte man that got my last month's salary." This is the fact, and the monte man is now in jail at Cedar Rapids.

Marshall MacMahon, President of the French Republic, is said to have telegraphed to his wife in Paris that the battle-fields of Sebastopol, Italy, and Sedan were nothing in their horrors in comparison with the scenes of desolation and misery which he witnessed at the inundated city of Toulouse. By drowning alone, 4,000 lives have been lost.

A teacher in the Port Jervis public schools was last week explaining to the children that usually all words ending with "let" meant something small, as streamlet, rivulet, hamlet, &c. Whereupon a smart boy asked if hamlet meant a small ham.

The Convention question in Alabama is waxing quite warm. The good people of that State are endeavoring to undo the abominable Constitution forced upon them at the point of the bayonet.

The girls in New London, Connecticut, use the hose for wetting and sobering drunken men. It is kindly proposed to charge them for the water used in this laudable manner.

The Baptists of Great Britain report a clear increase of 10,582 members during the past year, the largest in they have had in any one year since 1861.

ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE CENT'L EX. COM., RALEIGH, June 1st, '75.

To the People of North Carolina:

The General Assembly at its recent session called a Convention of the people to meet at Raleigh on the 6th day of September next, for the purpose of suggesting such alterations in our organic law as may be deemed wise and expedient.

NECESSITY FOR CHANGE.

The necessity for changing many of the provisions of the existing Constitution is generally admitted, and is too apparent to require extended argument. It is true that some of our prominent men at one time opposed the call for a convention; but their action was based on prudential consideration, and not on an indisposition to have the Constitution thoroughly revised. They feared that our purpose in seeking to reform our Fundamental Law, might be misconstrued by the violent and ill-informed men then controlling Congress, and the prosperity of our people checked, and the peace of the State jeopardized by some harsh and unconstitutional action on the part of the United States authorities. That fear no longer exists. We now have every assurance that the Constitution of the United States will be observed by the officers of the Government, and feel a satisfaction in announcing to you that the time has at last arrived when the officials at Washington City concede that the people of North Carolina have the same right to manage their local concerns which the citizens of other States enjoy. We can proceed without apprehension to perfect our Constitution and remodel it in the interests of our people.

THE CONSTITUTION, THE CREATURE OF MILITARY LAW.

This Constitution, the creature of Military dictation, was born in the throes of a Military reconstruction. Its authors were mainly Sciolists and adventurers who had lived among us without preferment, or possessed of qualifications entitling them to it; others were our recent slaves, who had known no law save the will of their masters, and others still were carpet baggers, both black and white—alien in feeling and Radical in Education—who sought positions here that were denied them where known—to despoil and humiliate us. And when their work was submitted to the people at the polls, thousands of our best citizens were deprived of the right of voting upon it, and over eighty thousand ignorant negroes were given the ballot to secure its adoption. It is no exaggeration to say that not one person in ten who voted for it could read the instrument, and not one in fifty had read it or was even moderately familiar with its provisions, and many gave it their support believing it would be merely temporary, and to escape further agitation and revolution. It is natural therefore that a Constitution thus formed and adopted should be found unsuited to our condition, and that we should embrace the earliest opportunity consistent with reason and prudence to secure such changes as time and experience have shown to be necessary. Our organic law should be expressed in language clear, simple and perspicuous, so that nothing may be left to inference or construction; our rights, so precisely defined as to be comprehended by all men of ordinary intelligence; and each department of the government should be so restricted, that while left free to discharge its appropriate duties it cannot by unwarranted encroachments embarrass the proper action of others.

THE CONSTITUTION UNSUITED TO OUR CONDITION.

That the Constitution contains some good provisions no one denies; it would be singular if it did not, but its abominable characteristics were so manifest that not a single Conservative member of the Convention that passed it could be induced to affix his signature to it, as a fit instrument to be submitted to the people. Indeed its provisions are so loosely worded and so badly arranged as to constitute but a medley of inconsistencies that defies the successful construction of the courts; in fact, to reconcile the difficulties arising from its practical workings, the court has in some instances been driven to supply omissions, and in others to introduce a new principle, hitherto unknown in the judicial history of our State, distinguished as "judicial legislation," an innovation anti-republican in character and invasive of the rights and duties of a separate department. Its provisions are so obscure that within the brief space of its existence many more decisions on constitutional questions have been demanded than in the entire previous history of the State—and of late we have witnessed the extraordinary spectacle of two sets of judges in both the second and eighth Judicial Districts, contending for the same position, one of which claiming to hold by an appointment from the Governor for a period of ten years, an office that the Constitution seems to say is to be filled by the people at the polls, and whose term is expressed to be only eight years.

In many counties, there is a practical denial of justice the courts are inadequate to the public demands, and thus they are driven to resort to special terms, which are expensive and unsatisfactory, and persons accused of criminal offenses are often confined for months without trial. We need a speedier justice and a less expensive judiciary system. We should abolish every useless office, which is now filled by a mere consumer; for only by a rigid and prudent economy in our public as well as private affairs, can we hope to restore the State to prosperity. It is believed that the laws will be more impartially administered by a return to the old practice of a rotation of the Judges.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CRIMINAL LAW NECESSARY.

It is also hoped that a greater incentive to honesty and a purification of the ballot box might result from depriving those who are convicted of infamous crimes of the elective franchise.

The matter of the Penitentiary which already contains more than six hundred able bodied men, also demands careful and practical attention, to remove in some measure that burden from our shoulders. Most of our private legislation should be excluded from the General Assembly. However, our limited space does not permit us to catalogue the numerous defects and imperfections of the present constitution to enumerate the remedies to be offered.

There should be some general ordinance adopted in relation to private enactments, thereby reducing the expenses of the Legislature, and in order to prevent hasty and inconsiderate legislation that no new matters be brought forward within —— days of their adjourning.

CAREFUL SELECTION OF DELEGATES.

As to the specific changes that ought to be made, these are to be considered by the citizens of the various counties, who should be careful to select as delegates those who will properly reflect their wishes. Men of enlarged and practical statesmanship, spotless integrity, representatives of all classes of society, and whose positions among them will entitle them their labors to confidence and support—and in their hands they certainly can more safely confide their rights than in the Convention of 1868.

METHODS OF CHANGE.

Of the two methods prescribed for changing the Constitution, that by legislative enactment is expensive, uncertain and dangerous; the several amendments recently submitted to and ratified by the people encountered the greatest difficulties in their passage, and even after the will of the people was declared in their favor by over 40,000 majority, serious apprehensions were entertained as to whether they were properly adopted; again, legislators when possessed of qualifications for such duties, are encumbered with numerous matters, and cannot bring that attention to each provision presented for consideration, without meeting such criticisms as may imperil their labors.

The Convention method is speedy and economical, the body is composed only of the same number of members as comprise the House of Representatives, and their minds are directed alone to constitutional reforms and their work may be completed and ratified, if necessary, in six months. As to expenses that may be incurred, it is believed they will be more than defrayed in a short time by the reforms that will be inaugurated.

The restrictions imposed by the Legislature, fully and amply secure the Homestead, Mechanics Lien, Rights of married women, and Personal Liberty, and should quiet the fears of the most timid, for they are recognized as of binding efficacy and are chiefly enjoyed by the friends of Constitutional Reform. Indeed they were incorporated in the bill mainly to remove partizan clamor, and anticipate scrupulous agitation. They are not the property of a mere party, but had their origin in the necessities of civilized society and were found among the statutes of various States previous to the war.

QUALIFICATIONS OF DELEGATES.

It is useless, however, to seek to quiet the mere caviller; the keen optics of some persons defy all law. The mere fact that the honor of the best men in the State is pledged to their preservation, should satisfy every reasonable voter. This Convention is called in pursuance of law, and each delegate before "he shall be permitted to sit, to be entitled to a seat in said Convention or act as a delegate thereto," shall swear to observe these "restrictions" (see acts 1874-5.) Should a part comply and part refuse to take this oath, only those who obey the law are members of the body, nor are we without precedents; similar oath was required of the members of the "restricted Convention" of 1835, the same question was raised, and after debate all the members took the oath and observed the restrictions, and that in a time of high party excitement. In that discussion the distinguished Judge Gaston used the following language: "The State Legislature had indeed no authority to impose an oath upon the members of the Convention, but the people had ratified the act of the Legislature by choosing delegates under it. If we transcend the limits or refuse obedience to the conditions therein prescribed we are not the Convention called by the people, but a self constituted body;" these views were concurred in by Macon, Edwards, Morehead, and others. We will dismiss the subject, however, by calling attention to the able work of Judge Jameson on "Constitutional Conventions," where, by argument and the cases cited by him in relation to this matter, he demonstrated that Conventions are bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the Act calling the Convention.

AID FROM REPUBLICANS.

In our last election it was gratifying to see Republicans who had hitherto submitted to the control of unscrupulous leaders under a mistaken belief that they were promoting the general welfare, seeing their corruptness as demonstrated by the "Credit Mobilier revelations," "Sanborn Contracts" and other frauds and defalcations, and their vindictive and relentless policy, whereby they sought to degrade the superior race by this iniquitous "Civil Rights Bill," overcome their party prejudice and give us their cordial support. To them we extend an invitation to remain and continue the work so auspiciously begun. To those who oppose us under the delusion of their leaders, who assured them this bill would never pass Congress and if it did would be vetoed by the President, though it now has his signature; and who have witnessed the earnestness with which the dangerous "Force Bill" was urged upon Congress, we say no longer remain where there is neither safety nor honor to a North Carolinian. The battle for civil liberty is not yet over. "Civil Rights" is still a part of the secret carpet-bag programme for this State; though driven from the halls of Congress, it will be renewed in the Southern States. We therefore invite their co-operation. The Convention owes its final success to the support of some of their ablest representatives in the General Assembly and they are doubtless aware that the wise provisions introduced into the Convention of 1868, by their ablest native representatives were scouted and defeated by that same element that has brought ruin upon their party and confusion to our State.

NECESSITY OF ORGANIZATION.

The friends of Convention should at once perfect their organization and bring out their best men in every county in the State. The leaders of the Republican party know that by their reckless violations of the constitution and efforts to central zeal power in the hands of the Federal Government, they have justly forfeited the confidence and support of the people; they therefore trust not to their own strength but to our apathy, and will endeavor to secure our defeat by divisions and false leaders. We therefore respectfully invite their attention to the following resolution adopted and successfully followed in our last campaign:

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nominees of our Conventions. Let your primary county Conventions be duly advertised and see that the people have a full opportunity of attending and expressing their wishes. The contest is important not only in its immediate effects but in subsequent results. The Republican party, under the leadership of carpet-baggers still remaining among us, will advocate the election of delegates, who will agree to meet and adjourn without holding a Convention, and this in violation of the wishes of the people, expressed through a two-thirds majority of the chosen Representatives, and after a considerable part of the expenses for milage and per diem is incurred. We believe, however, the promise is but a delusion and snare, for should they ascertain they have a majority in the body, it will be an easy matter for them to evade their promise by the refusal of a few to concur; as they do not acknowledge the "restrictions" as binding, they will resort to the most revolutionary measures to sustain their desperate fortunes, and in the end will fail to submit their work to the people for ratification or rejection.

Let us, therefore, present a united front, and with a general advance along our lines Radicalism will not only be routed but overwhelmed, and a victory for Civil Liberty assured for 1876.

THE MOUNTAIN HOTEL,

A FIRST CLASS HOUSE.

Its elevated and cool location, in full view of beautiful MOUNTAIN SCENERY; removed from the heat, noise and bustle of the Public Square, makes it the most desirable house for the invalid, and equally so for the seekers of pleasure.

Its character as a FIRST CLASS HOUSE, exceling every other in Morganton, is a fact too well known to require further remark; but that in consequence of the passage of THE ABOMINABLE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL by Congress, it is nolonger a PUBLIC INN, TAVERN or HOTEL or the entertainment of the public generally; but is strictly open for the accommodation of such of my friends as choose to call upon me upon such terms per day, week or month as we may agree upon, and to only such persons as I shall deem proper inmates on Happoldt's SELECT BOARDING HOUSE.

Medical attention can be had of Dr. T. C. Hines, who has been resident Physician for the last 10 or 12 years.

COTTON GINS.

TRIALS OF GINS AT THE WILMINGTON FAIR, Dec. 13th, 1873, between a 40 Circular Needle Gin and a 40 Saw Taylor Gin, each Gin having 100 lbs. seed cotton:
NEEDLE GIN ginned 100 lbs. in 6 minutes,
TAYLOR Saw Gin " 100 lbs in 9 minutes,
NEEDLE GIN made 36 lbs. Lint,
TAYLOR Saw Gin " 33¼ lbs. Lint.
Steam pressure to run Needle Gin was ½ less.

PLEASE EXAMINE THE PRACTICAL RESULT

The merchantable bale of cotton being an average of four hundred and seventy pounds, for convenience we submit a test on thirteen hundred pounds cotton in seed, as being a near approximate to the merchantable bale in lint.

TEST OF NEEDLE GIN.

Thirteen hundred pounds of seed cotton yielding in proportion to the above test, produces four hundred and sixty-eight pounds of lint and calculating the price per pound at fourteen cents, (as an average rate obtained for the seasons crop), the net value of the production would be $65 52. The time consumed in ginning would be seventy-eight minutes to the bale.

TEST OF TAYLOR SAW GIN.

Thirteen hundred pounds of seed cotton yielding in above proportion, would produce four hundred and thirty-two pounds lint (or some thirty-six lbs. lint per bale less than the Needle Gin), which at fourteen cents would net $60 48—or a loss of $5 04 per bale as compared with the Needle Gin. This would require the ginning of only fifty-three bales TO PAY FOR YOUR GIN, as the amount saved would buy you a Forty Circle Gin.

Unlike other books sold through agents this work is thoroughly advertised throughout North America. This fact, together with the large size, elegant appearance, and many new features of the book, causes it to sell more rapidly than any work ever published in this country. Those of my agents who have had experience in selling books, say that in all their previous canvassing they never met with such success or made so large wages, as since commencing the sale of my work. NOON DISPATCHES.

A Riot Apprehended—Negroes arming.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—A dispatch from New Orleans states that a riot is apprehended at East Feliciana, where the negroes have assumed the offensive and are collecting and arming through the parish for the supposed purpose of capturing the town of Clarion. Great excitement prevails throughout the Parish. A number of whites have armed and congregated to patrol the town. A bad feeling has existed between the races in that parish for some months.

A Conference of the Nations.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—The Ganlois announces upon semi-official authority that the Government has not abandoned its idea of having a session of the Conference on usages of war at St. Petersburg. It says all powers except England have accepted invitations to participate. The Conference will meet in the Spring of 1876.

An Ice Storm.

NEW YORK, July 27.—A Geneva letter states that the storm of the 7th inst. was literally an ice storm, accompanied by a cyclone, which, lasting not over 15 minutes at midnight, wrecked every window and skylight, and smashed in roofs and did incalculable damage. The suburbs suffered terribly, also all crops being destroyed. The ice fell in masses.

A Fatal Thunderbolt.

NEW YORK, July 7th.—During a fearful thunder storm yesterday P. M. a bolt of lightning struck the carriage of Capt. Johnson's funeral, knocking the driver from his box and fatally injuring him and throwing Miss drew and other members of the family into the road but without serious damage.

Fatal Shipwreck.

LONDON, July 27th.—The ship Stuart Hahenan from Bombay is wrecked. Five of the crew arrived at St. Helena The survivors were thirteen days at sea in an open boat when rescued.

Honors to Pendleton.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—The Board of Education has elected Pendleton by acclamation a member of the Board of Managers of the public library.

Suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Duncan, Sherman & Co., suspended this morning. The suspension causes great excitement in Wall street. Gold 114½.

Alarming State of Affairs at Oldham.

MANCHESTER, July 27.—The Manchester Guardian says an alarming state of things prevail at Oldham. Only six out of 162 mills belonging to the employer's association are working.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

FAILURE OF DUNCAN, SHERMAN & CO.

Speculation in Cotton and Railroad Stocks the Cause—Liabilities five or six millions.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The doors of Duncan, Sherman & Co. were closed at 11:25 o'clock. Only in a general way can the cause of the suspension be ascertained. It is admitted that the house has lost largely on cotton, in fact that is the principal source of loss. Involvements with various railroad enterprises, old and new, also entailed losses. The liabilities are understood to be between five and six millions. Duncan returned from Europe about two weeks ago and has since been making careful examination of his assets, and finds they are largely inadequate. He resolved to endeavor to get new cash capital and having failed to do so, determined that it was the best to suspend and make a general assignment for the benefit of all creditors. The indebtedness is distributed all over the country and Europe, a considerable amount being in the form of letters of credit held by the traveller's house founded in 1850 by Alexander Duncan, Watts Sherman and W. Butler. Duncan has latterly been the head of the present house. The present firm has been in operation about ten years. Great sympathy is expressed for the firm, particularly for Mr. W. Butler Duncan. The credit of the house was good up to the hour of suspension, and had Mr. Duncan chosen to avail himself of this, his house need not have suspended. The greatest excitement prevailed in the lower part of the city as soon as the rumor of the suspension began to be circulated. Large crowds of people soon collected, a majority of whom, however, were attracted about their office. Many attempts were made to gain admission to the building, but the doors remained obstinately closed. Even a telegraph messenger boy was unable to gain admission until he bethought him of the back entrance on Pine Street, and even then he was compelled to hand in his dispatch through an iron grating inside. The numerous clerks could be seen at their desks busily engaged with their books, but entrance is denied to all. At one o'clock there was still much excitement in the neighborhood of the banking house, but no new develpoments of importance had occurred. It is understood that a full statement of the affairs of the house is in preparation.

The following extract is from Sherman, Duncan & Co.'s statement: Trough losses and misfortune our available assets are so reduced that we are compelled to go into liquidation.

Trouble between Bristow and New—Gold in the Black Hills.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—There is growing troubles between Secretary Bristow and Treasurer New regarding the employees in the office of the Treasurer.

Prof. Janney telegraghs to the Secretary of the Interior that he has found gold in paying quantities in the Black Hills, and a good head of water amply sufficient for washing purposes. He reports miners pouring into the Hills from all directions.

Railroad Accident.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—An express train on the east Marietta and Cincinnati Road ran into a culvert near Zoleske. The fireman was killed. The passengers escaped unhurt.

Boiler Explosion.

GABLEVILLE, MICH., July 27.—A boiler explosion to-day killed 2 men; the Engineer was fatally hurt.

A TERRIFIC ACCIDENT.

A Train Goes Through a Bridge—A Fall of Eighty Feet—Five Killed Outright.

ST. PAULS, July 27.—A mixed train of 22 cars on the Northern Pacific Road went though the bridge over the Mississippi at Brainerd. Five were killed outright. The bridge was eighty feet high.

Yellow Fever at Fort Barrancas, Pensacola Bay.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Dispatches from Commodore Cooper state that there must be some local cause for the fever at Barrancas. The troops have been removed to Fort Pickens opposite Barrancas. Surgeon Sternburg telegraphs as follows:

Fort Barrancas, July 27th, 1875.—Taken sick one officer, Lieut. Deshler, two children, five enlisted men. Died, three enlisted men, one child. Remaining under treatment one officer, twenty-seven enlisted men, one officer's wife, Mrs. Ingalls, seven laundresses and servants, thirteen children.

Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, July 27.—Olitifila won in 1¼ race for fillies yooled in 1872—time, 2:00½. Comteis won the ¾ mile race, all ages—time 1:16½. Diovola won the steeple chase—time 5:50.

English Parliament.

LONDON, July 27.—The House by a vote of 173 to 19 agreed to give the Government bills precedence to-morrow. This shoves Plimsoll's bill over.

DISCOVERY OF A MINE OF AMBER.—A large deposit of amber has been discovered in the Kurische Haff, near the village of Schwarzost, Germany, about twelve miles south of Memel. It has been known for many years that amber existed in the soil of the Kurische Haff, from the fact that the dredgers employed by the Government for the purpose of clearing away the shallow spot near Schwarzost, that impeded navigation had brought up pieces of amber; these however, were appropriattd by the laborers, and no particular attention was paid to the matter till recently. Some speculative persons have made an offer to the German Government not only to do the dredging required at their own expense, but also to pay rent daily provided the amber they might find should become theirs. The proposal was accepted and the rent fixed at twenty-five thalers each working day. The dredging was begun by four machines, worked by horses; eighteen other dredges and two tugboats, with 1,000 laborers, are now engaged in the industry. The ground covers an area of several miles, and a yearly rent of 72,200 thalers is by paid the company to the Government.

There is very great mortality amongst the infants in Danville, many having died within the past two or three weeks.

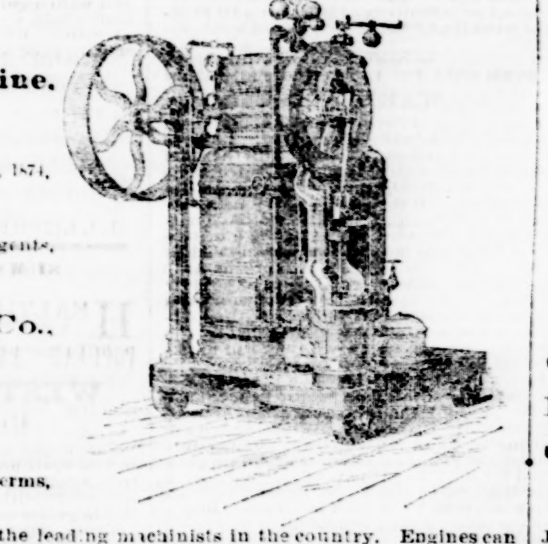
STEAM POWER.

The "Shapley" Engine.



PATENTED FEBRUARY 4TH, 1874,
is offered to the public by the agents,
Julius Lewis & Co.,
RALEIGH, N. C.
Please write them for circulars, terms, &c.
This Engine is endorsed by all the leading machinists in the country. Engines can be seen at our store.

It is Perfectly Free of Danger from Fire!

Sparks being drawn down through upright tubes and dropped in water—making it a desirable machine for agriculturists, printers, carpenters, or for any purposes requiring power of its capacity. Its simplicity allows its being run by any person of ordinary ability.
These Engines and Boilers have been thoroughly examined and inspected by the best mechanics, engineers and experts, all of whom pronounce it to be the best Portable Engine ever presented to the public.
Their small consumption of fuel, (being less than a quarter of a cord of wood daily, for an eight horse power) and we call especial attention to the fact that these engines and boilers are considered so safe by Insurance Companies, that they do not increase their rates of insurance upon their introduction into stores, gin houses, and other buildings, making them desirable machines for ginning cotton, running mill stones, elevating, heating, &c.; and they cannot fail to come into general use.
The materials used in the construction of these machines are in every respect first-class. No cast iron shafts or connections. Piston and valve rods, wrist pins, &c., are of best cast steel. Steam and water guages, try-cocks, oil-cups, &c., with governor, all as complete and perfectly made as possible.
